Dr. James Stillwell

Pastoral Counselor at Interfaith Counseling Center

Dr. Stillwell is a master of divorce recovery and helps people learn from their past, while focusing on their future. Along with an impressive academic background, Dr. Stillwell has helped over 3,500 individuals and families through the divorce recovery process, and has 30 years ministry experience.

Dr. Stillwell is based in Lexington, and is a happily married grandfather and father of four children.

WHICH ONE ARE YOU?

Thinking about divorce? In the process of separation, separated and not yet divorced? In the process of divorce, recently divorced, or divorced a long time ago? Parenting after divorce, divorced with no children, divorced with grown children? Initiator of the divorce, the one who was left in a divorce? Single again after a long relationship, grieving a breakup, celebrating the end of a bad marriage?

The case scenarios are many, but regardless of which scenario mirrors your situation, you can benefit from this course offered by Dr. James Stillwell.
